

VIP Content Consulting

Comprehensive Data Review and Quick Turnaround

This service provides key actionable insights and strategic recommendations within a swift 2-3 week timeframe, enabling faster decision-making and quicker implementation of strategies to enhance your media effectiveness.

Our Traffic Analysis Service meticulously reviews up to 20,000 articles over a 12-month period, delivering a broad yet detailed overview of your content's performance.

Tailored Insights Through Segmentation and Central Question Analysis

Unlock specific insights tailored to your publication's unique needs. Our service includes analysis of two distinct audience segments and addresses a central question, derived from initial interviews, to ensure the insights are directly applicable to your strategic questions.

This targeted approach helps pinpoint areas of strength and opportunities for improvement in your content strategy.

Flexible and Scalable Options for Diverse Needs

Get what your business specifically needs. We understand that every media outlet has different needs. Our base package is designed to meet the requirements of most customers, yet we offer scalable options for those requiring deeper analysis.

These include additional article reviews, extended historical data analysis, extra segments, and narrative insights, ensuring that our service grows with your needs and remains cost-effective.
